

The Knoxville Whig

BROWNLOW, HAWK & CO., Publishers.

Rising up the other church,
Draped like you on the knees,
Close thy lips when dare to speak,
Will not do in times like these.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 17, 1861.

C. S. MORSESON, No. 24, Broad Street, Boston, Mass., is a very reliable reporter agent to receive subscriptions for our paper in the State of Connecticut and Massachusetts.

The WHO can be had every week at the News Desk of R. H. Singleton, Post Office Building, Nashville, Tenn.

Johnson's Policy in 1864.

As per Johnson's Reconstruction.

In calling a convention to restore the State, who shall represent it? Shall the men who gave his influence and life to the cause of freedom be permitted to control it? If so, then on all this precious blood of our heroes soldiers and officers so freely poured out will have been spilt, all the glorious victories won by our noble armies will go to naught, and the battle-fields which have been won with the dead bodies of our heroes will be desecrated again. What an arrogant and despicable policy! This is the lesson which we must draw and never forget. Therefore I say that traitors shall take a back seat in the work of reparation.

Andrew Johnson in Favor of Disunion.

I say that the Southern confederacy is to be a citizen, and in joining the confederacy has made a political entity. We are entitled to be a member of the confederacy, and we are entitled to meet and congregate in our government. We say to the world that we are independent beings who come from England and Germany and Prussia, and to add to the weight of our argument, we say to the world that we are independent, and that we are not bound by any compact or agreement which has ever been made between us and the confederacy.

Andrew Johnson in Favor of Disunion.

Those who have been engaged in this conspiracy, who have fled upon our flag, who have given instructions to leave their native homes, arsenals, and dock-yards, and I will show you a traitor. Who is President of the United States, I would be Thomas Jefferson did in 1803 with Andrew Jackson, because he was a traitor, and of course, while the members and supporters of the confederacy, by the Eternal God I would execute them.

Andrew Johnson Favors Confederacy.

Friends, be it so! and traitors and traitresses will be punished and impaled. Their great plottings will be exposed and disclosed, and will be hushed, indecently.

Andrew Johnson Jumps to Victory.

Whatever he has done anywhere greater than the Constitution of the United States, he is a traitor.

Andrew Johnson's Campaign Speech at Nashville, September, 1864.

The Late Loyal Triumphs.

The majorities obtained in five Northern States, by the Radical Union party, over the combined forces of the Copper-Johnson-Rebel-Democratic party, are about as follows:

Maine	17,000
Pennsylvania	30,000
Iowa	30,000
Ohio	40,000
Indiana	20,000
Total in the five States	107,000

In all these States the Radicals have secured about two-thirds of both branches of the Legislature, so as to be enabled to elect Senators, even though the whole should be with a view to destroy the Government. In the five States, the Radicals have secured the same number of Congressmen they had.

They had nearly all, and they have re-elected them, under the name of "loyalists." These five States alone have elected more Radical Congressmen than the eleven seceded States are entitled to, if they were admitted to seats with all rebels elected.

The State yet to elect will go Radical, leaving Johnson and his rebel-restoring policy high and dry.

Never was a man so signally rebuked as Johnson has been, and that too by the very men who elected him to the Vice Presidency.

If the Southern papers desired the welfare of the Southern States, they would advise them at once, and without delay, to ratify the Constitutional Amendment, and come into Congress. If they do not, a stronger force awaits them, and they will have to take it.

Union Revival in Hancock County.

On Monday, the 1st inst., there was a great Union revival in the thoroughly loyal mountain county of Hancock. Circuit and Clergy Courts were in session.

The whole county was in attendance. His Honor, Judge E. E. Butler, holding Circuit Court, received a written request signed by many citizens, to make a speech on the subject of the controversy between the President and Congress. He complied with the request, and on the adjournment of Court for dinner at 12 A. M., descended from the bench, and made an eloquent and argumentative speech.

The Judge spoke an hour and half, endeavoring the Radical Union party, over the combined forces of the Copper-Johnson-Rebel-Democratic party, are about as follows:

Maine

Pennsylvania

Iowa

Ohio

Indiana

Total in the five States

17,000

30,000

30,000

40,000

20,000

107,000

In all these States the Radicals have secured about two-thirds of both branches of the Legislature, so as to be enabled to elect Senators, even though the whole should be with a view to destroy the Government. In the five States, the Radicals have secured the same number of Congressmen they had.

They had nearly all, and they have re-elected them, under the name of "loyalists." These five States alone have elected more Radical Congressmen than the eleven seceded States are entitled to, if they were admitted to seats with all rebels elected.

The State yet to elect will go Radical, leaving Johnson and his rebel-restoring policy high and dry.

Never was a man so signally rebuked as Johnson has been, and that too by the very men who elected him to the Vice Presidency.

If the Southern papers desired the welfare of the Southern States, they would advise them at once, and without delay, to ratify the Constitutional Amendment, and come into Congress. If they do not, a stronger force awaits them, and they will have to take it.

Gen. Grant's Opinion of Copperhead-Johnson Newspapers.

As the Johnson newspapers have repeatedly made the lying statement that General Grant is opposed to the Radical Union party, we give his opinion of those odious advocates of the treasonous Copperhead party. We call the especial attention to it of the Johnson editors, East Tennessee. The correspondent of the Chicago Republican, in speaking of the Cincinnati Enquirer, gives it as follows:

"One of the truest and bravest of Tennessee's Loyalty is Hon. Joseph Powell, State Senator from the home of Andrew Johnson. For many months Mr. Powell was imprisoned by the Rebels. For thirty years he has been a personal and political friend of the President and partied with him resolutely. His love of country was shown to be greater than love of Johnson, as soon as the latter deserted his principles and the Union party. As a Legislator Mr. Powell is an honor to the State - a man of unexceptionable character, industrious, efficient and always at the post of duty."

Recently it was reported (the Johnson men are always reporting falsehoods) that Senator Powell had deserted the Union party and joined the Johnson编辑者. On the subject the Senator wrote a letter to Captain George E. Graham, of the Jonesboro' Flag, from which we make the following extract:

"It seems that a rumor has gone out, that I had gone over to the 'My Old姨' side. No, I traveled with President Johnson until he left the main road, and took the REBEL PORK, when we parted company, and I do not expect to meet him again after this. When he returned with his retinue, with his go open for admission into the ranks of the Radical party. This he is sure to do by giving him his word."

Yours truly, J. POWELL.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to be in attendance and speak.

A procession will be formed, headed by Col. Geo. W. Kirk and his brave soldiers, followed by the members of the East Tennessee regiments.

Soldiers are requested to come in full uniform.

Let every Unionist who loves his country be present.

At a recent political demonstration in Cincinnati, one of the orators, who was the speaker for the "no tax on negroes," was a Radical Union man, and the speaker for the "no tax on negroes." Tennessee rebels who are advocating a summary overthrow of the State Government, and who are threatening to drive union men out of the country, will find in the above union men who have been deceived by their pretenses for the last few weeks.

A grand Radical Union Mass Meeting is to be held in Jonesboro, on the 22d day of October, 1861, at which a large and magnificent Union flag will be raised.

Many distinguished Union orators will be present to address the people. Hon. Horace Maynard, Gen. L. C. Trowbridge, and Judges Butler and Rock, have positively promised to